" Without doubt this location is for you! The villa is set in the charming costal marina town of El Masnou. See how the real catalan people live ! The villa is just a 3 minute walk to the beach, Marina and train station. The Marina of El Masnou has numerous restaurants and bars ranging from snack bars, chinese to gourmet, after a pleasant meal you can then visit the many clubs and bars open until the early hours. Then a pleasant stroll back to the villa for a peaceful nights sleep or for a relaxing dring on the rooftop terrace with it's magnificent views of the marina and sea. (the villa is in a residential area, very quiet) Relax on the beach after a day of sightseeing in Barcelona in the many chiringuitos (Spanish beach bars) where, during the summer months you can taste local seafood and tapas for a very reasonable price. Just up the road (5 minute bus ride), you will find the charming wine village of Alella, famous for its Wine. "

Surroundings & location

" Barcelona / El Masnou area, The town of El Masnou is known locally for its Marine and beach nearby Alella, a scenic wine-producing village with its own denomination and many fine buildings. Alella is right on the coast, just up from El Masnou, about 20 kms north of Barcelona. Alella and Masnou would be listed on any decent map of the area. Masnou has commuter trains in to the center of Barcelona every 15 min, a fun train ride which runs along the coast, with views of the beaches for much of the 15 minutes that the trip lasts. You can also drive into Barcelona in about 10-15 minutes from the coastal highway, the C-32 from Masnou. Masnou is also important for the quality of its beaches, the good terraced restaurants on its pleasure port, the old world charm of the town center, and the good supermarkets just outside of town. "
